LOCATION

Manchester is widely regarded as the capital of the north and is recognised as the largest business and financial centre outside of London

Manchester's economy is largely focused on banking, finance and media, however it is also highly regarded for its retail, education systems, tourism, and sport, giving the city a well-versed atmosphere suitable for locals and tourists alike.

Greater Manchester has a population of 2.8 million, increasing to circa 6 million within 1 hour's drive and also boasts the largest student population in Europe with over 100,000 students. The city is very well connected with extensive road links, the 3rd busiest airport providing direct flights to 220 destinations and it is home to the 4th busiest railway station in the UK, Manchester Piccadilly.

The subject property occupies a prime position on the corner of St Ann's Square, one of the most prestigious retail and office destinations in Manchester City Centre. St Ann's Square sits between Market Street and King Street and is home to a number of leading fashion and jewellery brands.

St Ann's Square is well located for all public transport being in close proximity to all 4 of Manchester's main railway stations, Piccadilly, Victoria, Deansgate and Oxford Road. St Ann's Square is also a 5 minute walk from St Peter's Square and Exchange Square Metrolink, providing quick access across the city centre and to Greater Manchester.
