Location

Bangor is a historic, University City located on the North Wales coast, near the Menai Strait and at the foot of Snowdonia National Park, in the County of Gwynedd.

The city benefits from strong road communications, being situated approximately 14.50 km (9 miles) north of Caernarfon and some 96.50 km (60 miles) west of Chester. The city is situated just north of the junction of the A55 and the A5. The A5 links with the M54 at Telford whilst the A55 links with the M56 and M53 at Chester, providing access to the national motorway network.

Bangor benefits from a mainline rail station, a few minutes walk from the High Street, which provides a regular service to Holyhead in the west (approximately 35 minutes) and Chester to the east (approximately 60 minutes).

There is a direct service from Bangor Station to London (Euston) which takes only 3 hours and 15 minutes journey time.

The city has developed as a key University City over the past decade as a result of the popularity of Bangor's University. The University is regarded as one of the most economical locations for a student to study and has some 14,000 students, providing a positive impact upon the local economy. In addition, the Snowdonia mountain area and numerous beaches on the Llyn Peninsular are close by, bringing tourism to the area on a year round basis and especially over the Summer season.

Retailing in Bangor

Bangor lies 2nd in the hierarchy of North Wales retail centres, ranking behind only Wrexham.

The retail floorspace in Bangor is estimated at 0.52 million sq ft and focused on the prime pedestrianised thoroughfare of High Street and Garth Road. The managed floor space comprises the subject property (The Menai Centre), being the dominant retail scheme in the city centre and the secondary Deiniol Shopping Centre, providing 4,645.11 sq m (50,000 sq ft) of accommodation, situated on the opposite side of Garth Road.

The older Deiniol Centre comprises a covered walkway accommodating 26 smaller retail units, providing a 'value' retail offer, anchored by an Iceland Frozen Foods store. This scheme has an entrance off High Street and a 2-level basement car park (approximately 120 spaces).

Further along High Street, moving away from prime pitch, there is additional national multiple representation including New Look and WH Smith.

Convenience food representation is relatively low in the city centre, comprising the offer within the 1,718.69 sq m (18,500 sq ft) Marks & Spencer store at the foot of Garth Road, which attracts significant footfall which passes the subject units on Garth Road, and an Iceland Frozen Food store located within the Deiniol Shopping Centre. An Aldi Supermarket of approximately 1,179.86 sq m (12,700 sq ft) is located a short distance beyond Marks & Spencer's on Garth Road, benefiting from an associated surface car park of approximately 74 spaces.

On a site located on the edge of the city centre, ASDA have taken occupation of a purpose built 4,180.64 sq m (45,000 sq ft) supermarket, on Farrar Road, in November 2012. The site will also include provision for 300 car spaces.

Also, on the High Street, towards the railway station, Lidl occupy a 1,300.63 sq m (14,000 sq ft) supermarket with an associated 73 space surface car park.

Situation

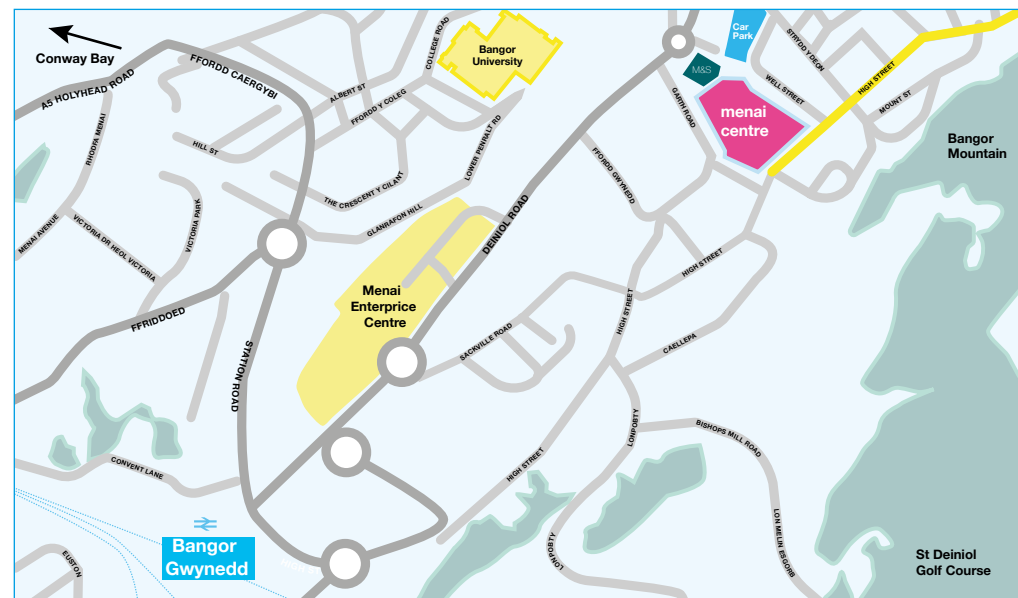

The Menai Centre is situated on the northern side of the High Street, at its junction with Garth Road; the main focal point of the city centre and the prime retail pitch. The Centre's retail frontage runs along the High Street and then turns onto Garth Road linking into Cathedral Walk, which in turn links into the associated multi-storey car park.

Bangor Bus Station is located opposite the subject development, where regular bus links are provided to local towns and villages, generating footfall for the subject units along Garth Road and leading onto the High Street.
