Location:

Alsager is an affluent market town situated 1 mile from junction 16 of the M6 motorway and 4 miles from the A500, providing convenient road links to Knutsford, Macclesfield, Nantwich, Crewe, Hanley and the wider region.

These ground and first floor premises have a substantial frontage to Lawton Road in the heart of Alsager town centre adjacent to Scrivens Opticians. The town centre offers a range of quality independent shops, bars and restaurants, a weekly market as well as a Costa Coffee outlet, an ASDA supermarket and a large public car park.

Accommodation:

The property was most recently operated as a pub/restaurant and is fitted to include the main bar, dining area and customer WC's at ground floor. The first floor has an additional bar, dining area, customer WC's and a large kitchen and cellar. There is a goods lift and a food hoist to the rear of the premises. Servicing is directly into a small holding area at the rear of the unit off a large service yard. The previous occupier had an external seating area at the front of the property via a pavement licence from the Local Authority.
